

Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law should remain as it is. It was normal for us to receive one or two phone calls per evening & many times even on SUNDAY. Its been great not receiving the telemarketing calls. This is a good law and our household votes to leave it in place.